Doug
Hi. To a really sweet Girl I have fun this year and all the years to come. Good luck with the boy.
Karen

Dory,
Hello,
You are a sweet and crazy person. Remember our 9th grade year. I hope this year is fun too.

Dory,
I know well enough to get together & have fun - but what about Biology, don't get sick when we're dissecting a frog, or have to do a report on a chapy

Dear Lady,
Now you have to draw me a picture to remember you by. Please draw me a rabbit or a dog or a horse or a cat or a bird or a cow or a pig or a mouse or a fish or a duck or a lion or a tiger or a bear or a monkey or a deer or a ...

Dear Dory,
I don't think I could even compete with Walter, so I'll sign it right here. You keep writing that's what I did. Thanks but we both of us. Thanks has helped you helping me with see much I've learned so much Bill. I have things that if I would've about things would be so have carried, messed up next year, well get another schedules together sometime, so don't worry about ours not to take. I don't think that anything will develop between Walt and I (much to my dismay) but that's life. Be good. Remember to keep smiling + don't let your mouth keep you down. I wouldn't do anything God love you. Dory, Love, Jane '74

Seventy-five

Dory - You're a great kid • a fun person to know. Thanks for your help and cooperation during the musical. Have fun in the next year. Good Luck. Luv, Judi

Dory - I'd sign this big and fantastic and Ultra-Poetic With full orchestration and three part harmony but I hate signing yearbooks. They're such a drag - It could ruin my whole day - that wouldn't be fun. Thinking up something like that takes so much time. Good-luck in the future.

Ken Kainos - Walt

P.S. The year has been great, it's been heart-warming and breaking. We've experienced a lot, from drunken firemen to "Real" feelings - knowing that we could count on eachother if we needed anybody even at 10:30 at night when Police Roam Colfax Avenue Even at 12:15 When Parents think you and I went and Eloped in Nevada or Something. - Knowing that we can have feelings about not ever being too wrapped up in anyone and Still being Able to cherish dreams of Utopias and Everlasting love. Being able to talk about and accept the possibility that love might not be with us tomorrow and still deep down hoping it might - That being a balance - the balance between Reality and Dreams. That's the most important aspect of the year and our Relationship - Your Reality and my dreams blending to make a Relationship that no-one will ever understand (including us sometimes). That balance, that boundary, Between our personalities is very small and very delicate And because of that our whole love for each other is often upset and put in Jeopardy but Each trial has brought victory because we both have ~~in common~~ a mutual trust in Love. And Lady, as Long as we keep that we won't be defeated there'y, see I don't how to spell it Either Isn't anyway for it to Fade. Most importantly I've Learned Yesterday Lasted a second, Today Lasted a minute, And tommorrow will Last forever because tommorrow will have Love and Love has no End.

Love, in the boundary, forever if forever Last's that Long.

Love, Walt

P.P.S. What we ougta do is go get a Big Mac and a Coke only this time you go get it. Then we can go watch the Waves Set) over the clear blue Sun And I can tell words of blackmailing quality not you. Hang on to our blackmailing secrets. Then turn into send them to my uncle in Afghanistan who melts Glasses and bows bottles.

This year, as in past years, students from L.M.C.H.S. have spent time at Gard School and working with the retarded children; and at the Y, swimming with the handicapped. High School students have also gone over to the Middle School as teacher's aides. Both the students, and the children, and those in charge were pleased with the work being done. Our students were truly a living example of the Prayer of Saint Francis:

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury . . . pardon.
Where there is discord . . . unity.
Where there is doubt . . . faith.
Where there is error . . . truth.
Where there is despair . . . hope.
Where there is sadness . . . joy.
Where there is darkness . . . light.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled . . . as to console.
To be understood . . . as to understand.
To be loved . . . as to love.
For:
It is in giving . . . that we receive.
It is in pardoning, that we are pardoned.
It is in dying . . . that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

National Honor Society

Mrs. Robert Vanderberg from the Berrien County Bicentennial Commission presented Lake Michigan Catholic High School with the official Bicentennial flag to commemorate the Bicentennial. The presentation was made during the induction service to the National Honor Society on April 22, 1975. The flag was received by all of the area High schools.

Laker Firsts

This year L.M.C. took many first places in all areas - acedemics, the arts, social, athletics. This page is in honor of those winners.
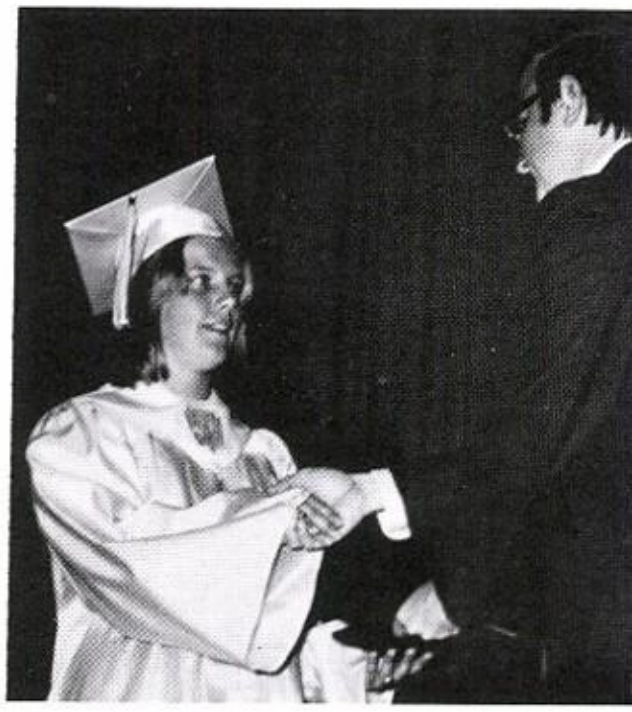
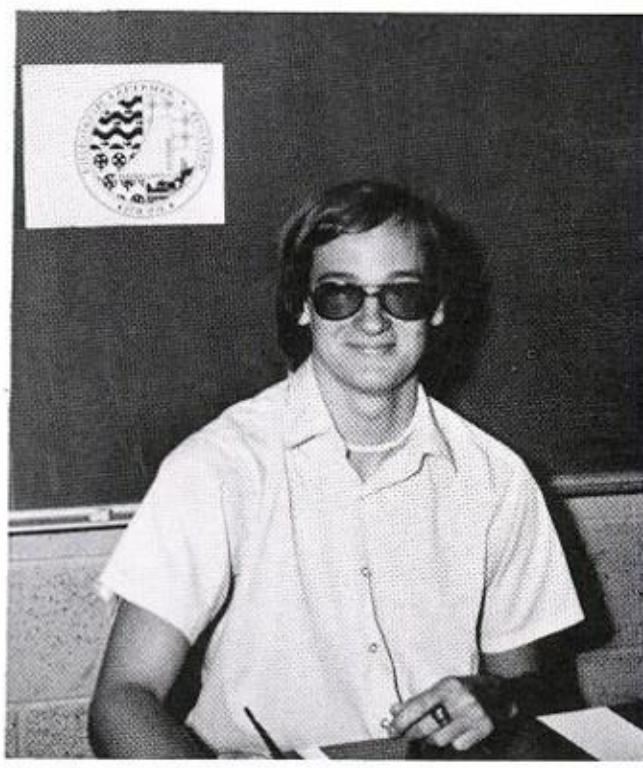
Right: Pat Collins was named valedictorian. This was the first time this title was ever given at L.M.C.H.S.
Below, Left: Though the track team only took 2nd place in conference, many individuals firsts were made during the 1975 track season, Tim Gentry, Mike DeFrancisco and Larry Wallace took firsts in the Conference meet. Larry also took a first in the Regional meet. School Records were made by D. Neumann, N. DeFrancisco, M. Ashbrook, L. Wallace, T. Gentry, S. Gentry, R. Bowie, T. Nelson, M. Schultz.
Below, Right: Jack Claeys took first place in designing the Berrien County Bicentennial Logo.
Bottom, Right: Chris Kasmer took first place in the district finals for wrestling. This was a double first, for the 1975 wrestling team was the first at L.M.C.





The only men's team to come in first this year was the cross country team. Both Conference and Regional Champs, were the Laker Harriers.

Ken Halamka placed first in the ugly man contest, and Jerry Sarno was the number one bearded man.

The D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award went to Karen Gentry and the D.A.R. History Award went to Rita Marsala.

The Principals award went to Joe Herzog.

The Bicentinnial essay contest was won by Cathy Pullano.

Along with Wrestling, two teams, J.V. Baseball and Girls track represented the Lakers for the first time.

1974 Conference Champs!!

For the first time in the history of L.M.C. the Lakers have won Red Arrow and regional championships in Cross Country.

By winning the regional they had the opportunity to run in the state meet; another first!

The team, coached by Wayne Stefanich ran many miles during the summer to prepare for the season.

The Lakers top runners consisted of the quintet of, senior captain Jaime Cordera, Steve Gentry, Tim Gentry, Larry Wallace and Perry Deleeuw.

In dual meets the Lakers compiled a perfect 7-0 conference record; 14-2 overall.

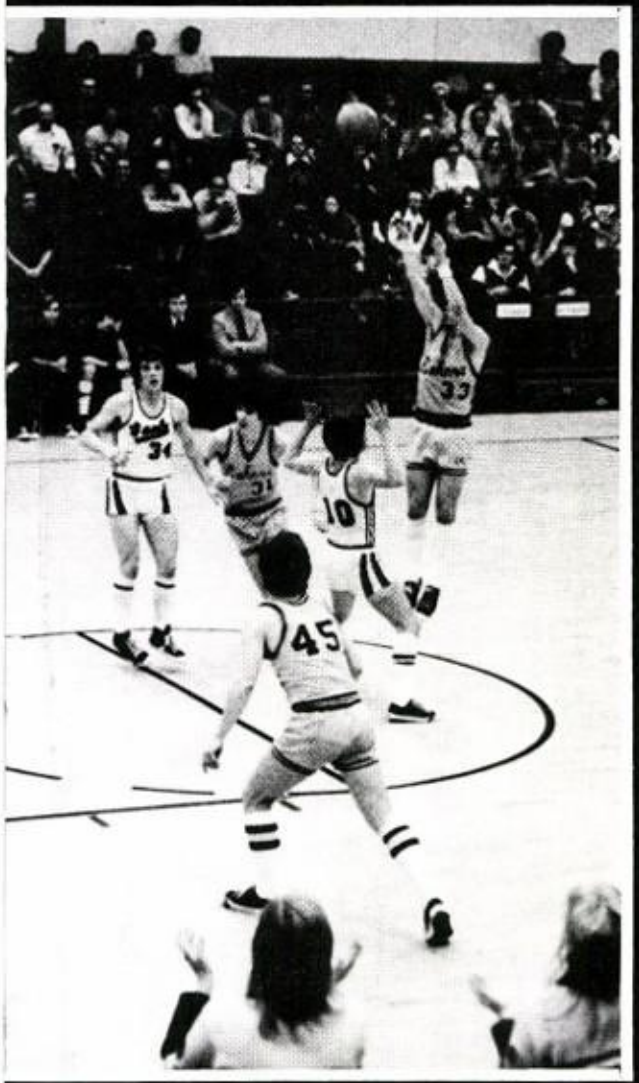
Win a Few, Lose a Few . . .

Our junior starting center Bill Frantz was voted both most valuable and best offensive player. George Welch received the best defensive player award, and senior guard Jim Etter was voted most improved player on the team.



A lack of offensive consistancy and the failure to win the close games prevented the Lakers from finishing higher than fourth in the Red Arrow Conference. However, the traditionally strong Laker defense kept the team in title contention into the final week of the season.

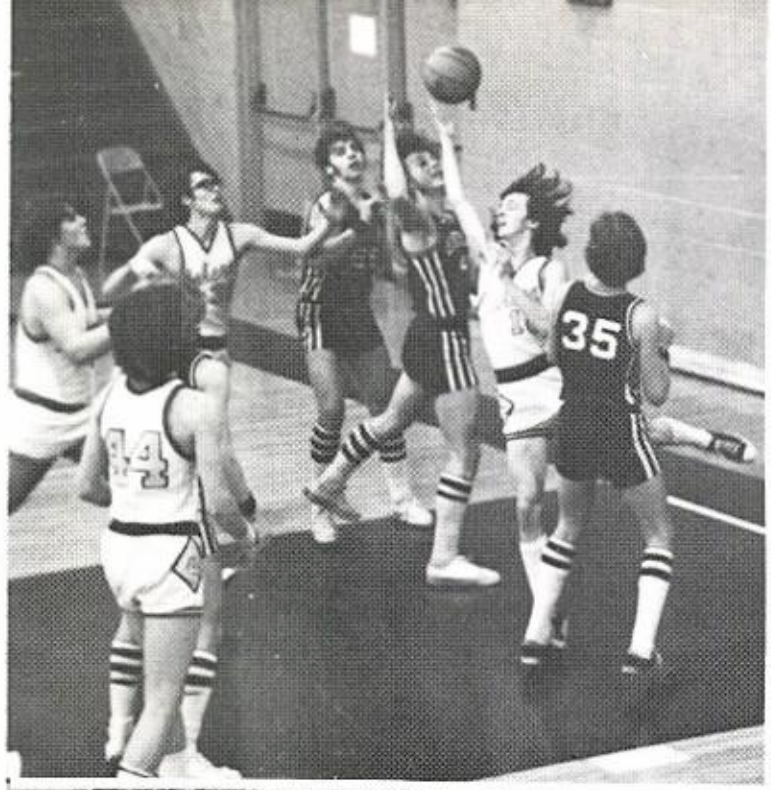
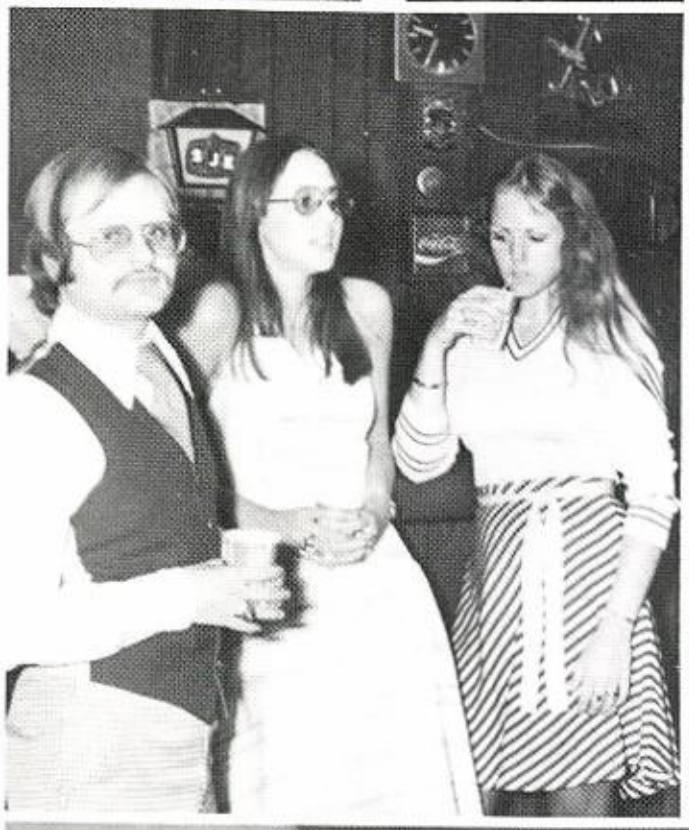
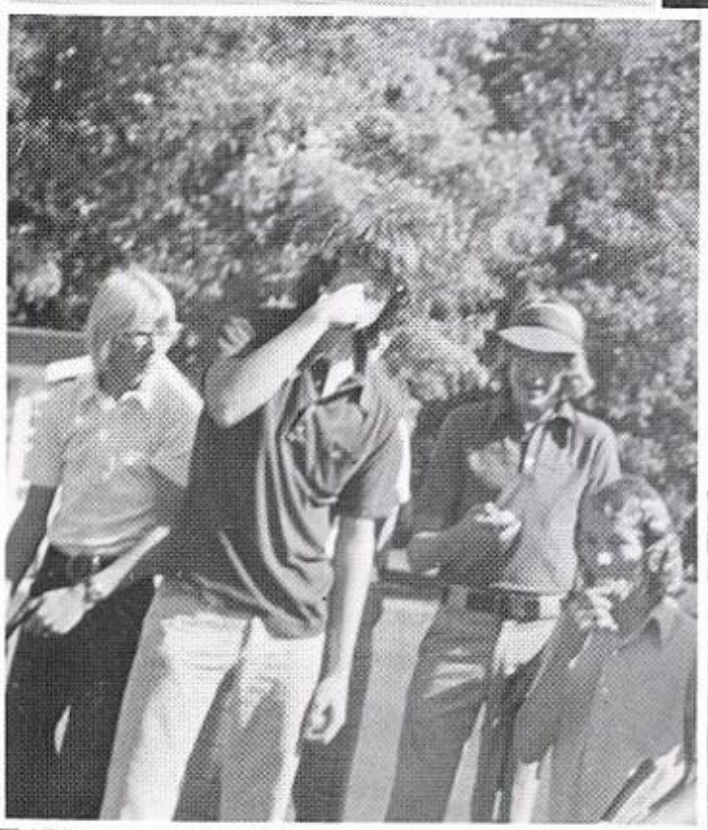
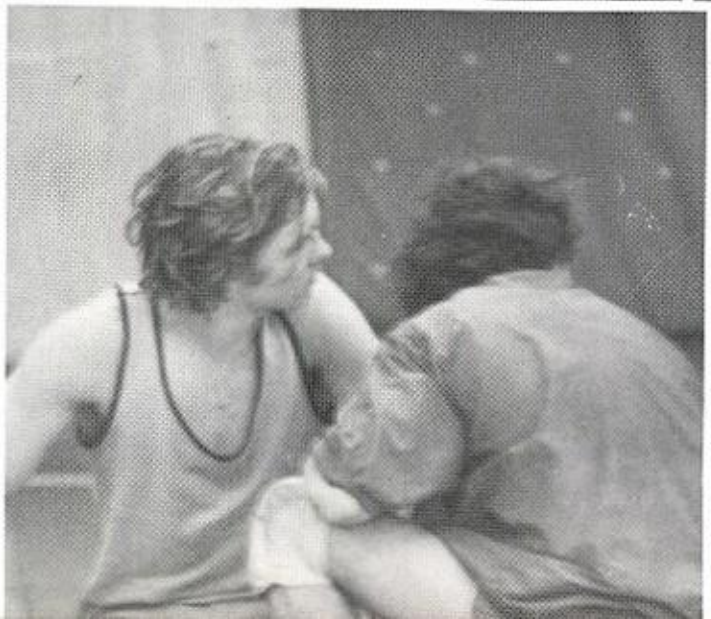
We Are the Lakers

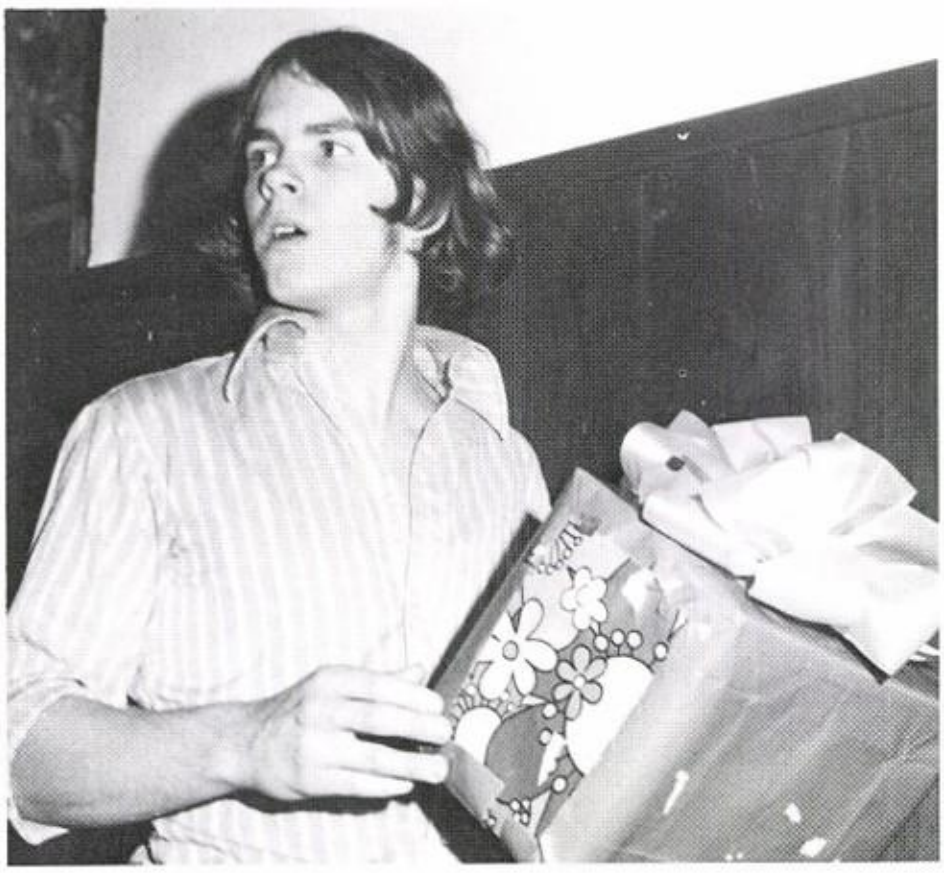


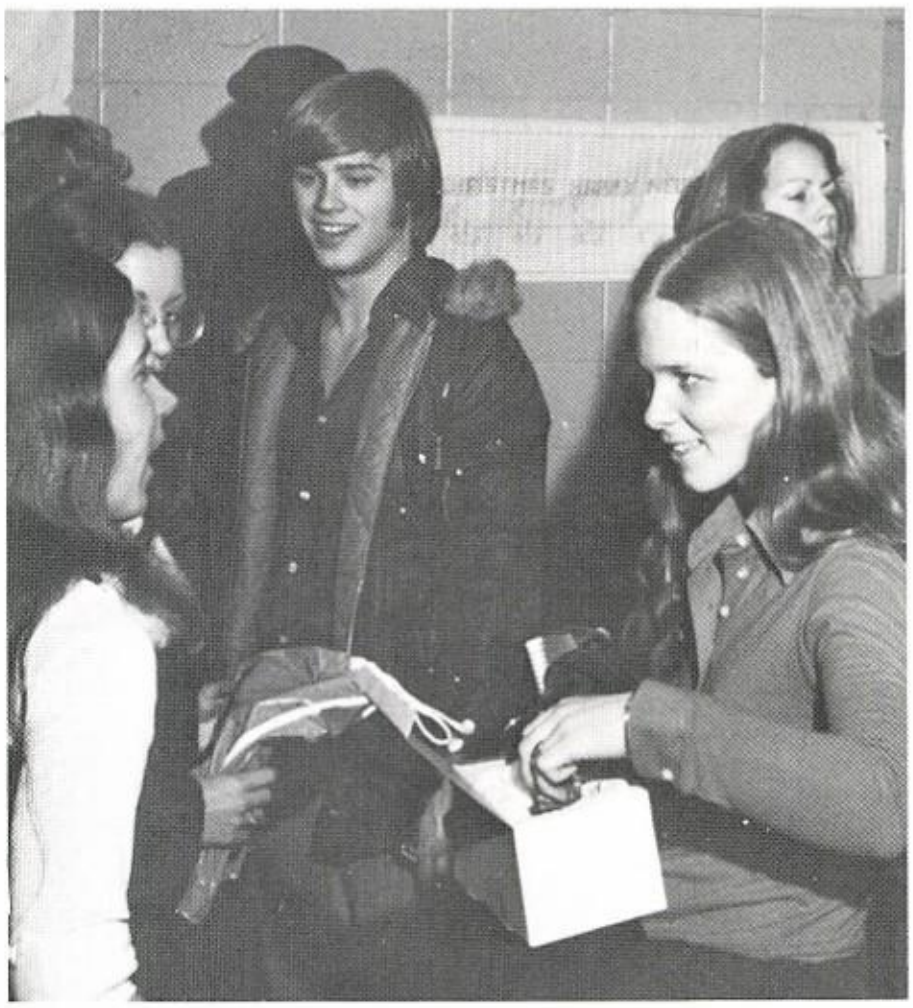
This page is specially dedicated to all Lakers. Some may ask, "What is a Laker?" Aside from, "Lakers are the most wonderful people on earth," not much of a specific definition can be given. for Lakers come in all sizes and degrees of craziness and can be found doing almost anything. Lakers, however, can be identified by their enthusiastic Laker Spirit. LAKERS, 00-00!!!

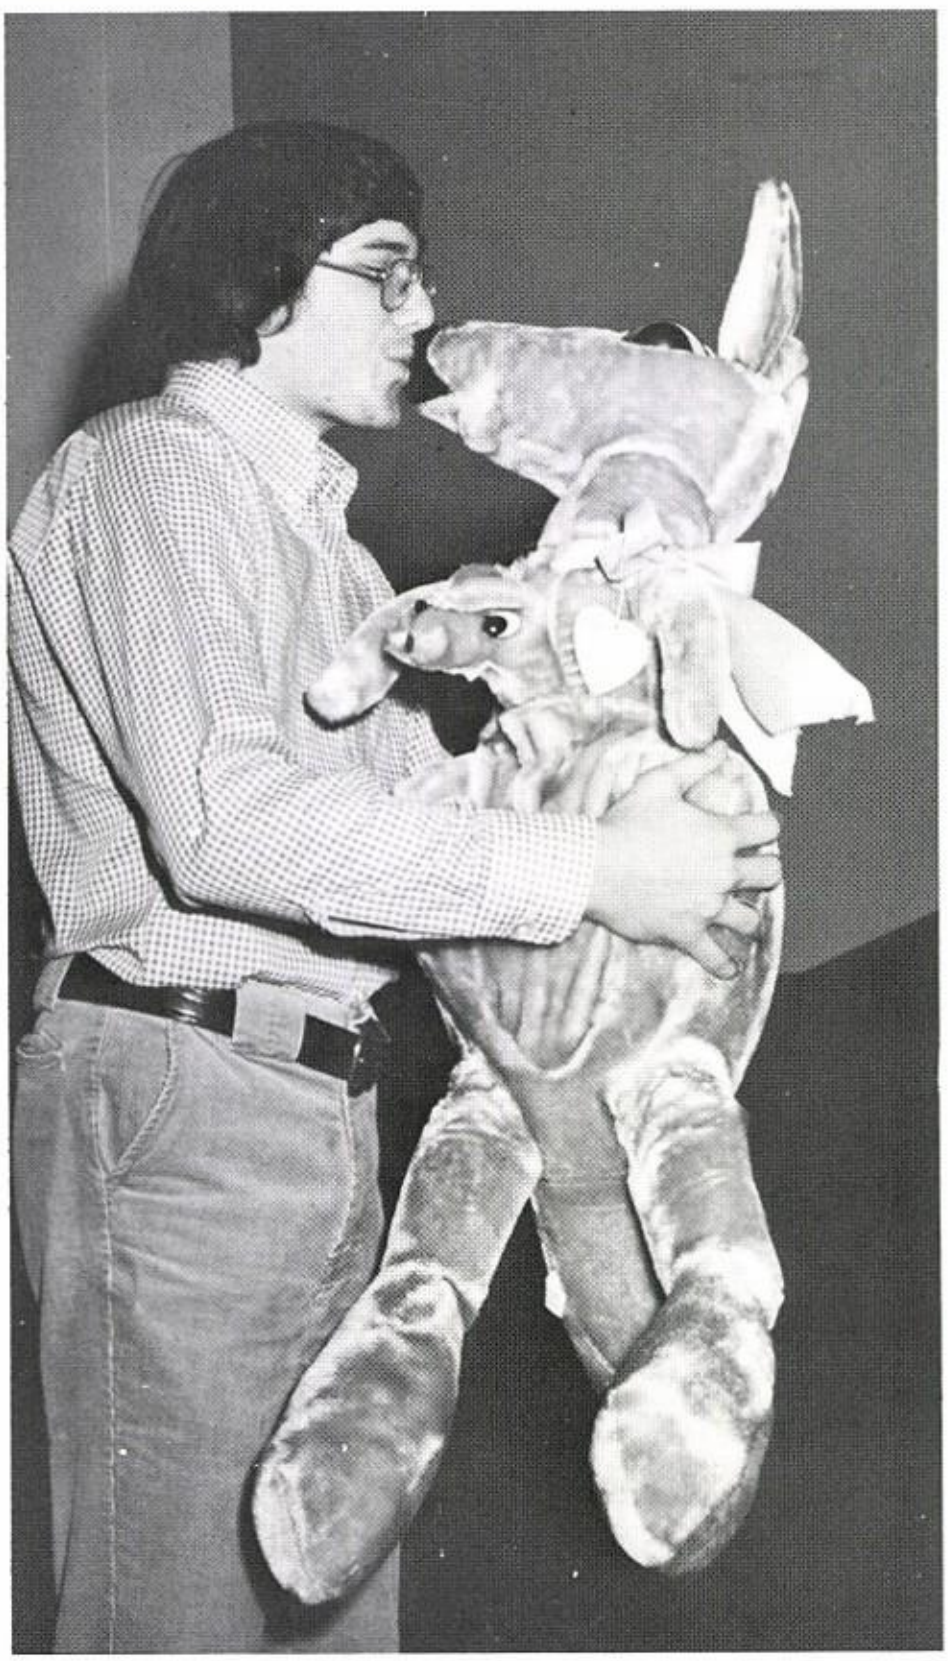


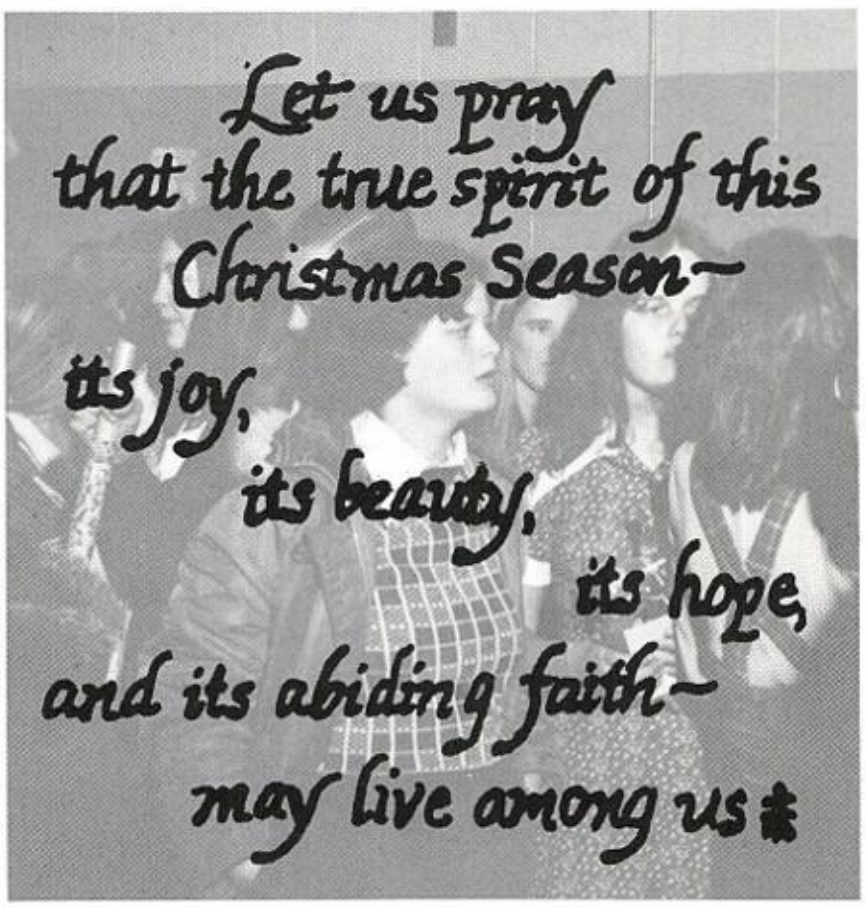












Let us pray
that the true spirit of this Christmas Season~
its joy,
its beauty,
its hope,
and its abiding faith~
may live among us*

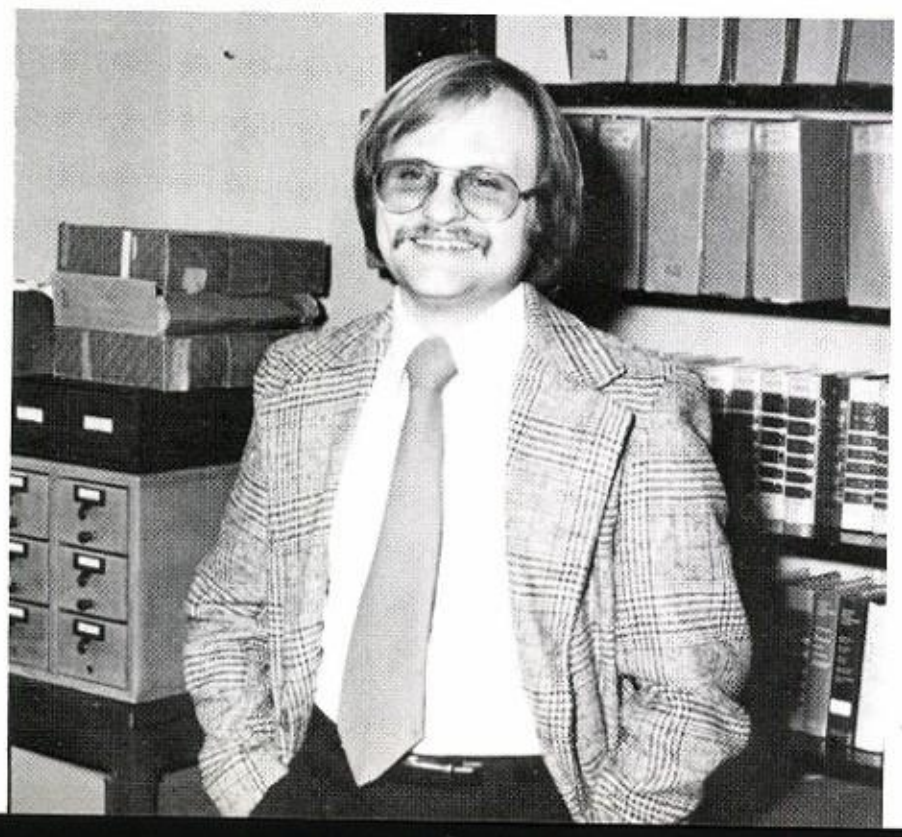
Joan Derrick, editor
Eileen Foulkes, business editor

P.S. We would especially like to thank all those who spent their hard earned money to buy a 1974-1975 yearbook (it sure was hard trying to squeeze the money out of you!).



Dory.

I don't know if I've written in your book or not but who cares. Do you know we've had alot of fun together. Remember the float that had a near a fire. And we can't forget the last year when John and Barry & I'm still little werrys! We'll stay as nice + sweet as you are. I wish you the best of luck in school and in all the years to come. Lets be friends always. Take good care and lets have a blast in our last 3 years. Don't forget me and I wouldn't forget you. Good luck again

The Graduating Class of 1975, wills to the 20th Century's most irrestable lover, Joseph Kramer, and to his fiancee, Judy, who has an extraordinary taste in men, we will a happy and successful life together.

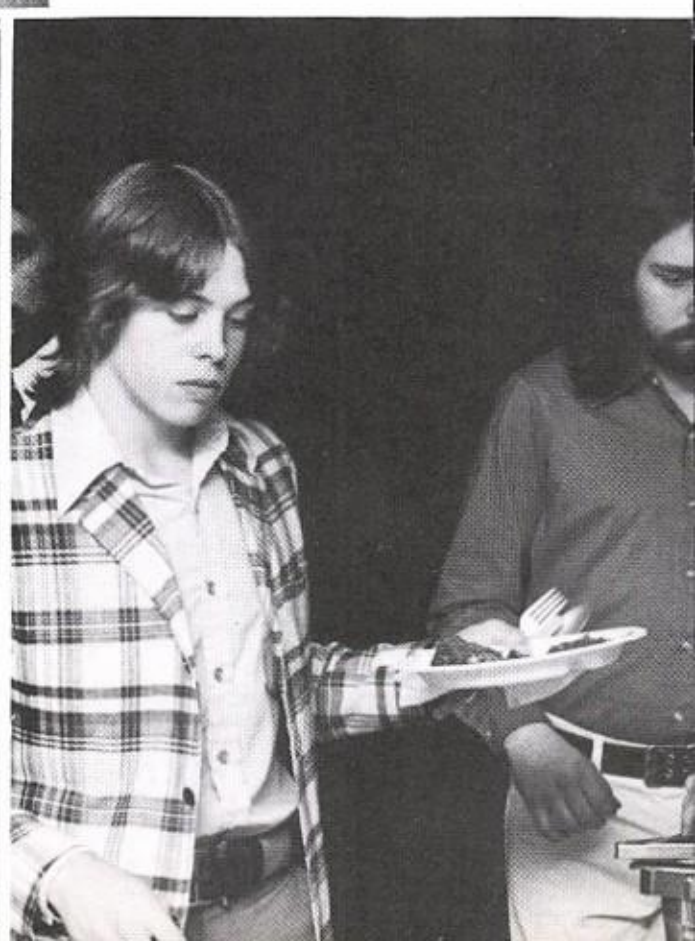
The Class of '75 wills to the Lunch Ladies 2 all beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, pickles, onions, on a sesame seed bun.

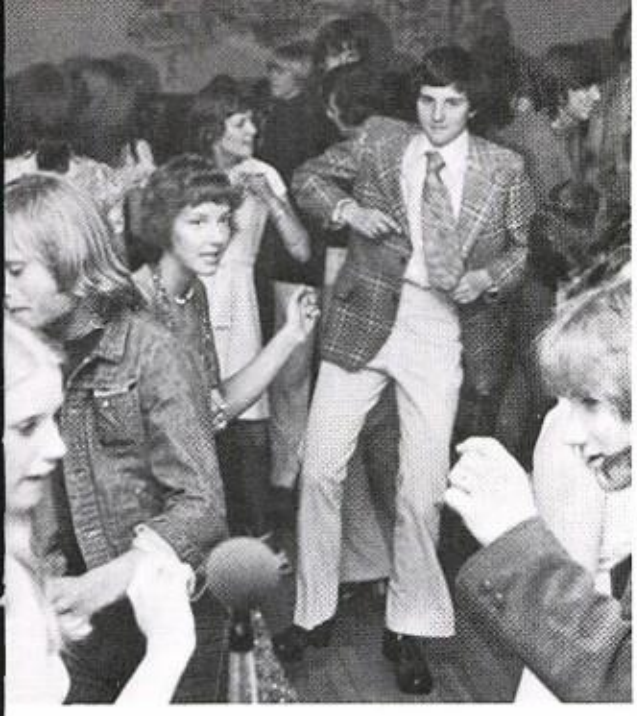
The Class of 1975 wills to mothers Jornada, Cook, and Demchinski an encyclopedia of Dr. Spock's Baby Care, and pink, blue, and yellow booties respectively.

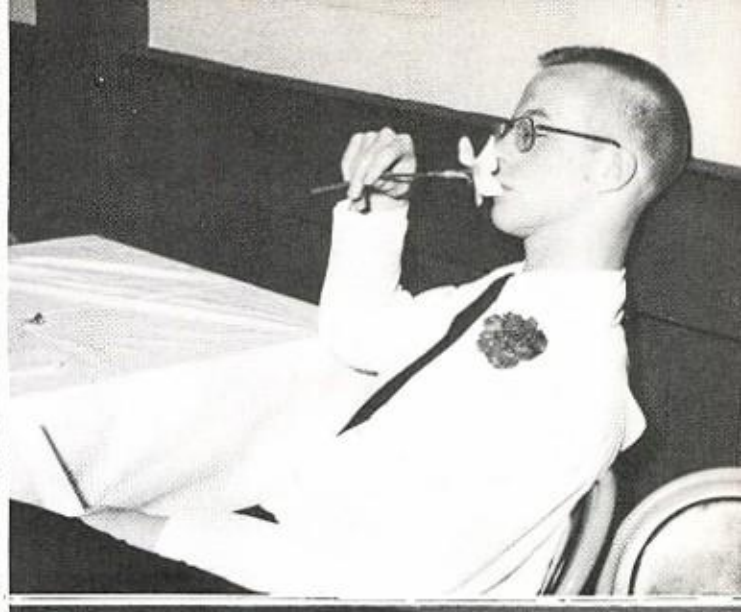
The Yearbook Staff wills to Kevin Rosewall, John Schuenemann's camera, and the two rolls of film he lost.

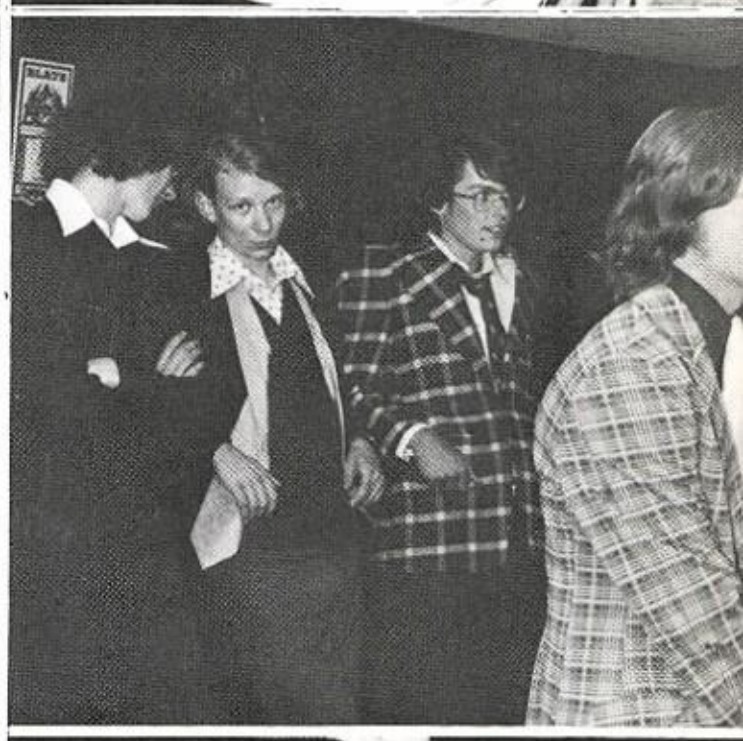
To Mark Frazee, the Seniors will honorary membership in detention, along with Butgereit.

I, Mike Kern, will to Sue Meyers, the ability to throw passes at Bill Frantz. (But I certainly hope they don't bounce.)









I, Chris Forestieri, being of at least partially sound mind, and presently sound body, will to Tom Flood, a harem so that he will know that variety is the spice of life.

Jenni Tibbits will be brewmistress at the Back Alley while soliciting customers for "pro basketball bubble gum cards of Rick Robinson" and listening to Buddy Holly's immortal love song, "It Doesn't Matter Anymore."

Leslie Stoffle will be the world's next sex symbol after the disintergration of Raquel's silicone. She will work in disguise selling Henry's horse burgers.

Marianne Blyveiss will be absent from her own funeral.

Dave Neuman will be official leader and only living member of Knights of the Range.

Ten years from now Michael DeFrancesco will be on an around the world marathon running over plains and pole vaulting over hills in his sick maroon warm ups. His wife Tina will be at home making sure the dust doesn't land on his train collection.

Gregg Blanchard will have a wife, 2 kids, a nice job, a beautiful home and happiness.

Jaime Cordera, in ten years, will be spending his last few days amid therapeutic baths and vitamin supplemented diets at the Jim Ryan Home for Retired Runners. There he will be working on his novel: "How to Fail at Running by Trying Very, Very Hard."

Drew Regan will be in charge of the lighting effects in a contemporary play dealing with the life of Helen Keller, a play done completely in the dark.

Jordan Bublick will become a part time rabbi who owns a chain of Comet Discount Stores, and drives around in a True Value Hardware Van.

Mark Dahn will be the Official President of the Keggers Club and will have authored the books, "Kegging, the Hard and the Easy Way," "How to Get Kegged Before Your Eighteenth Birthday" and "What is a Kegger?"

Kathy Leatz will be secretary for a major law firm and will still be trying to type as fast as she talks.

Jim Griffith will be the next Dean of Discipline at LMCHS.

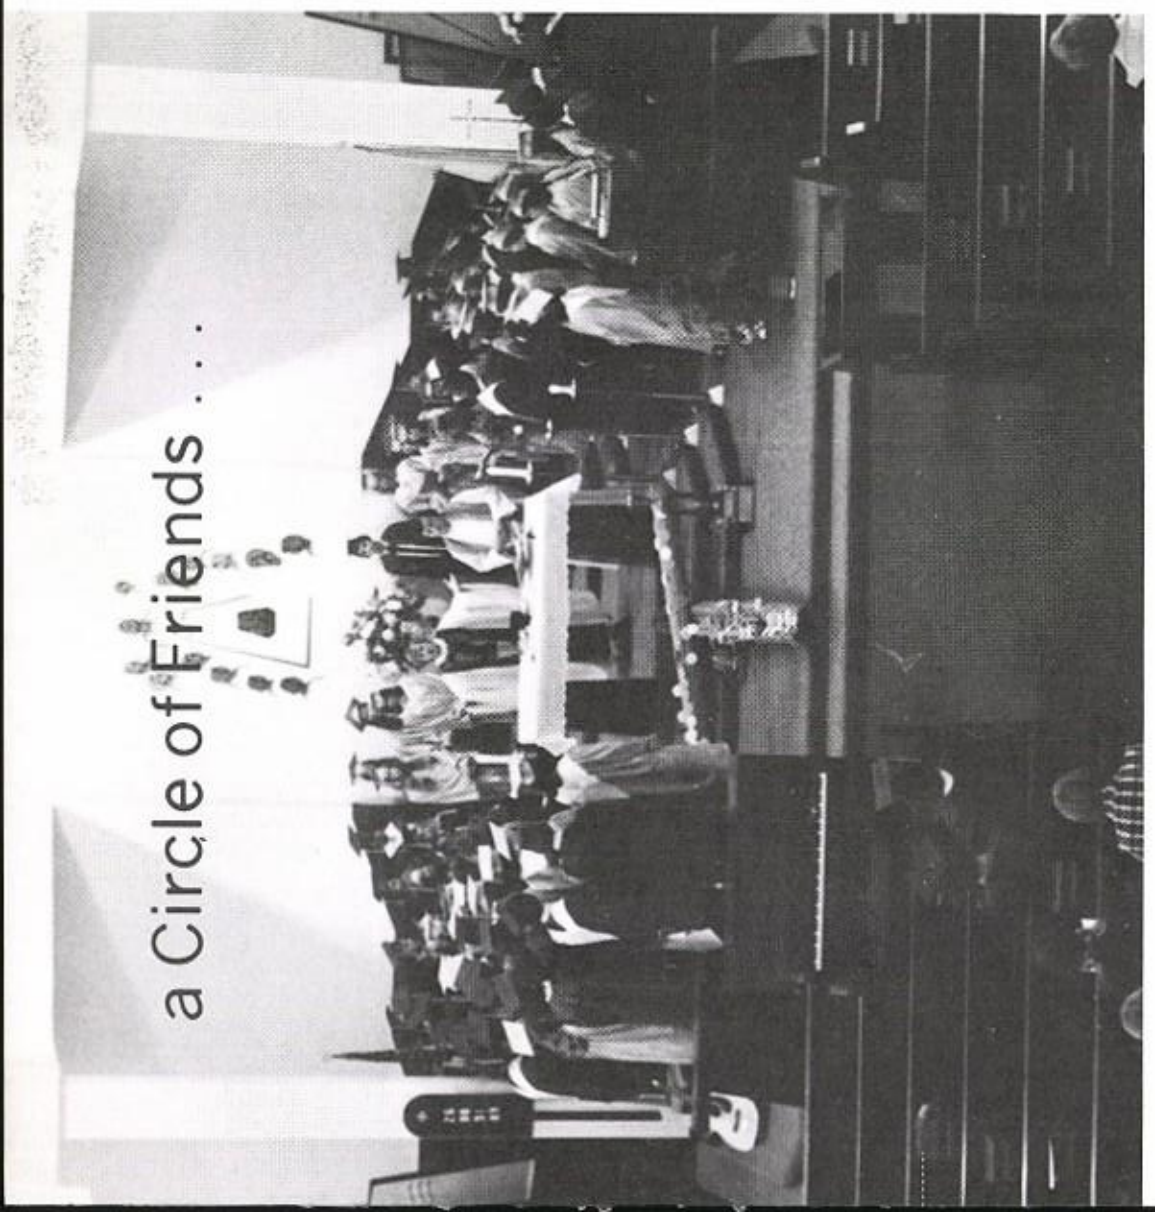
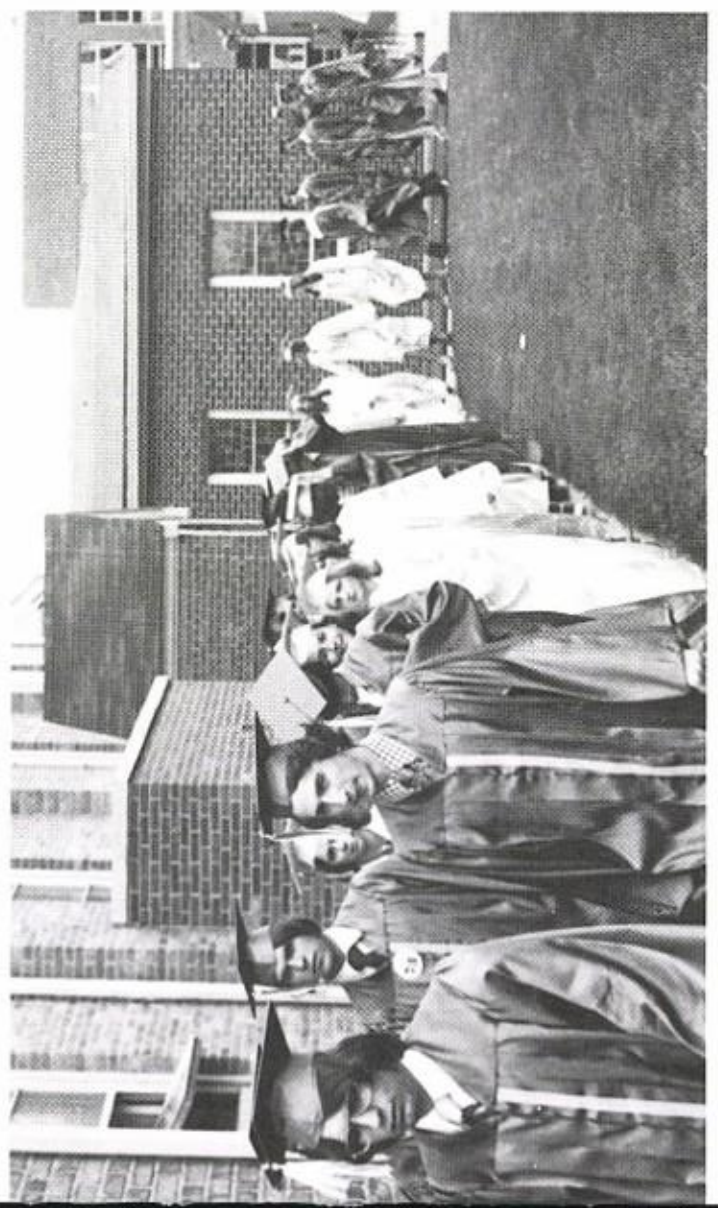
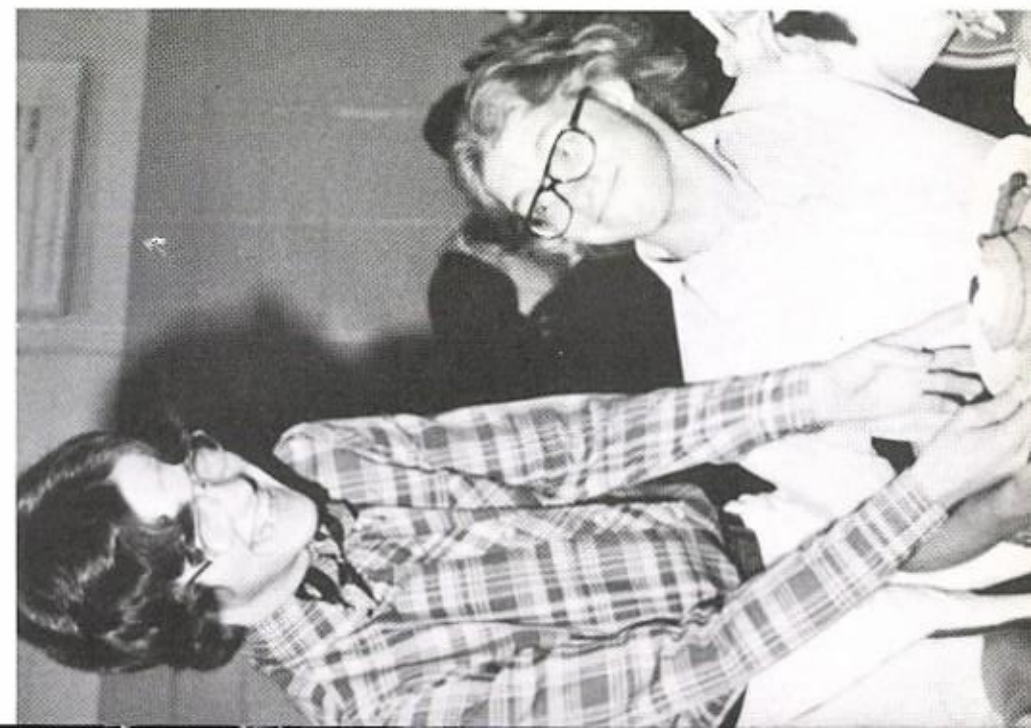
Senior Mass . . . and Breakfast

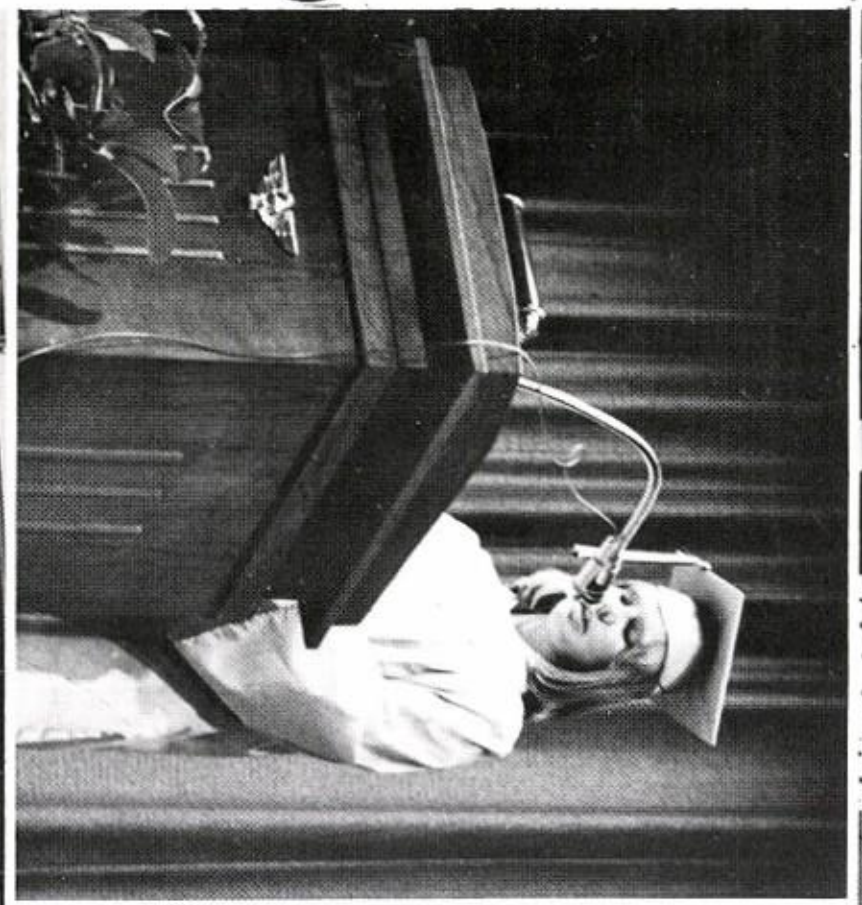


a Circle of Friends . . .

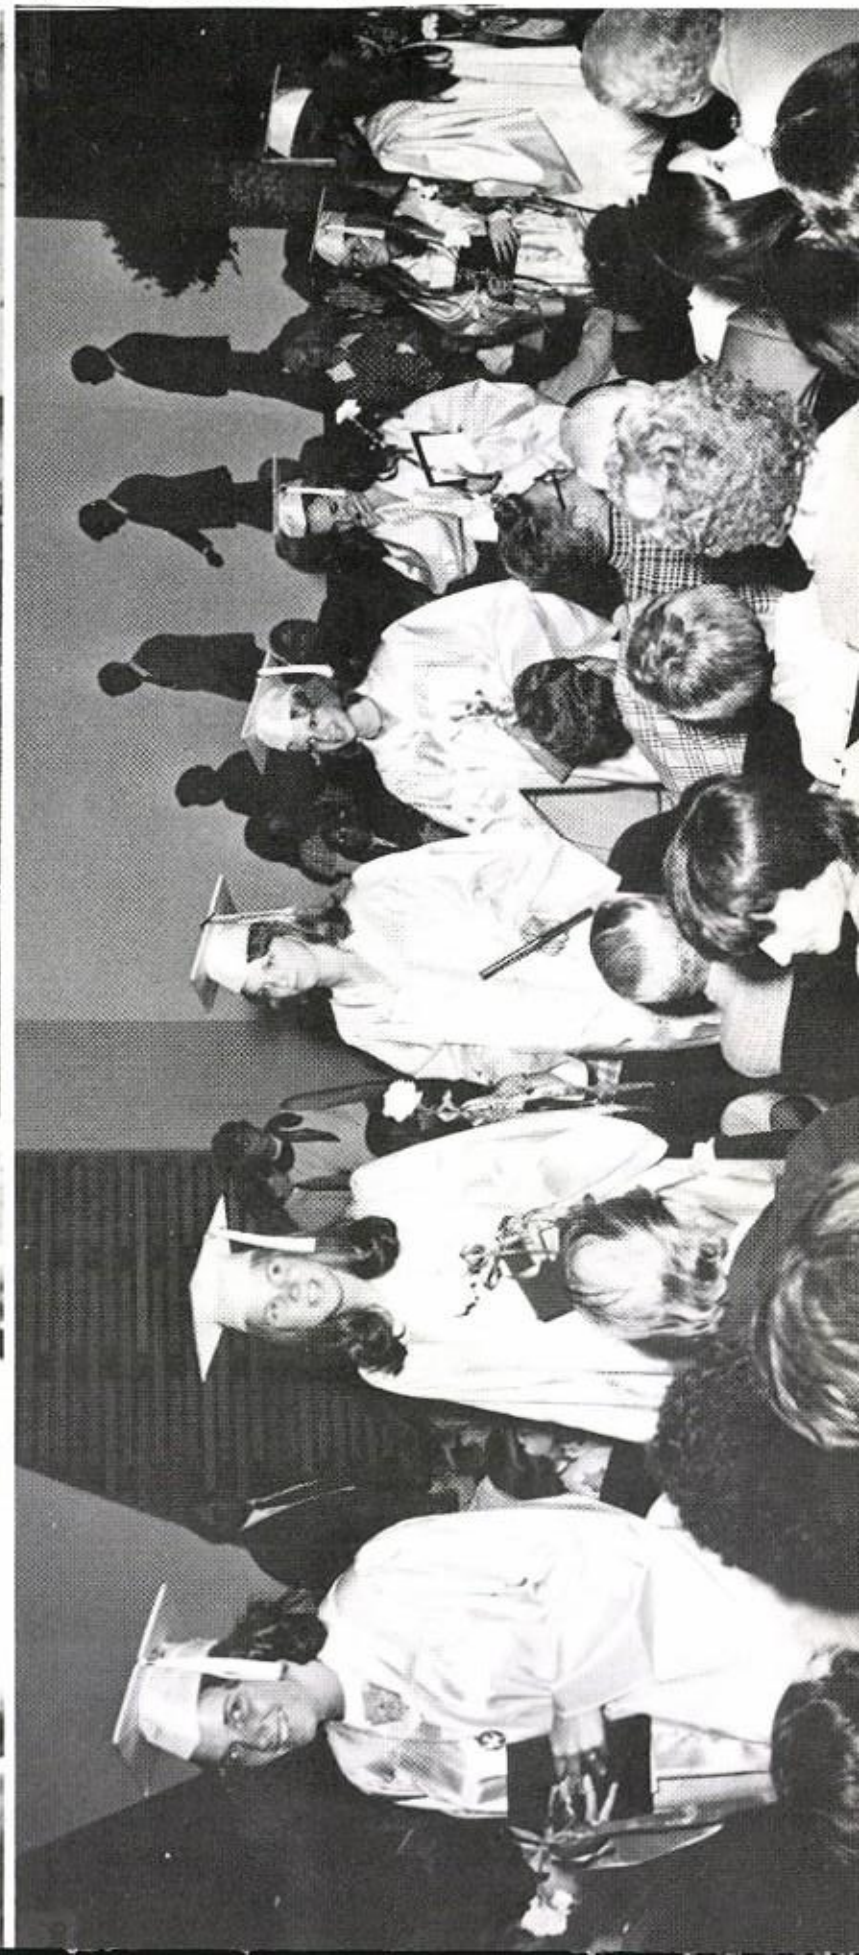


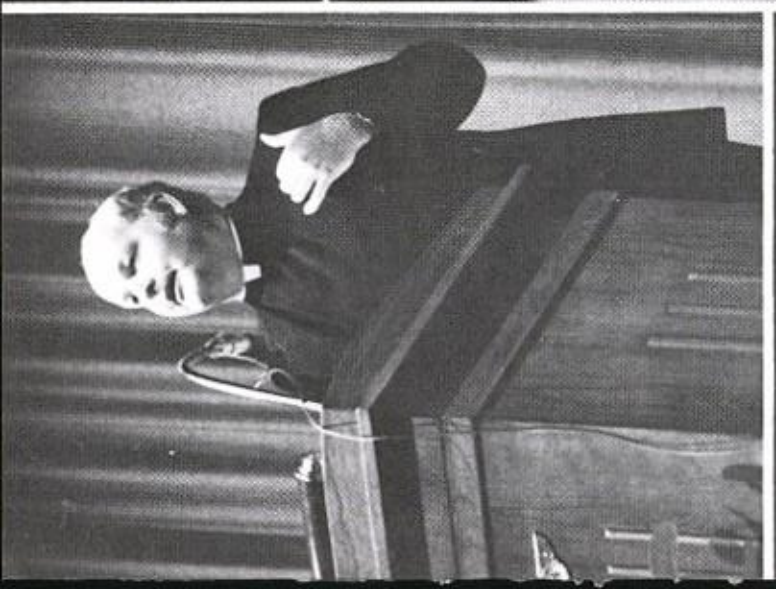


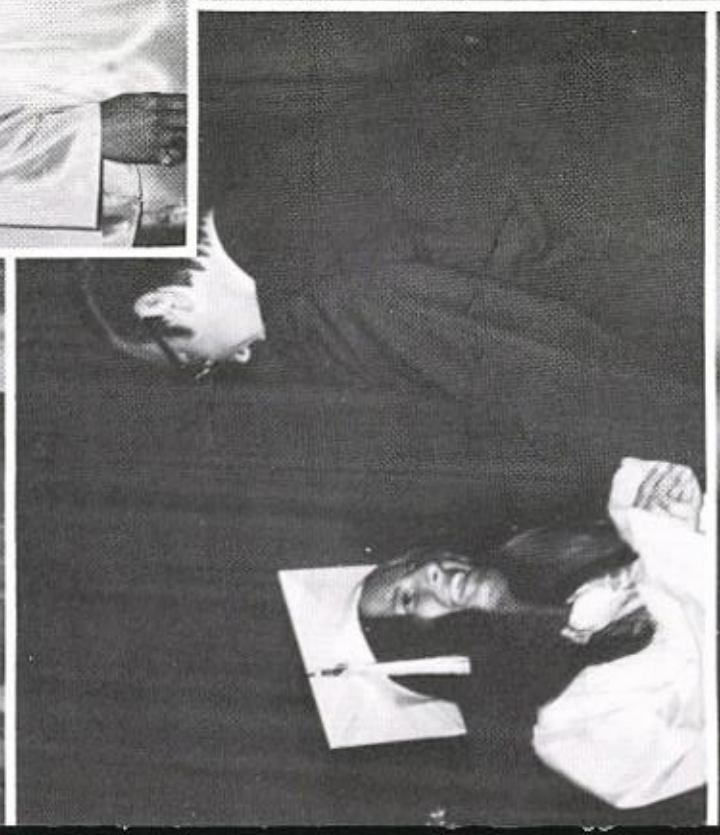
. . . Two Roads Diverged in a Wood . . .

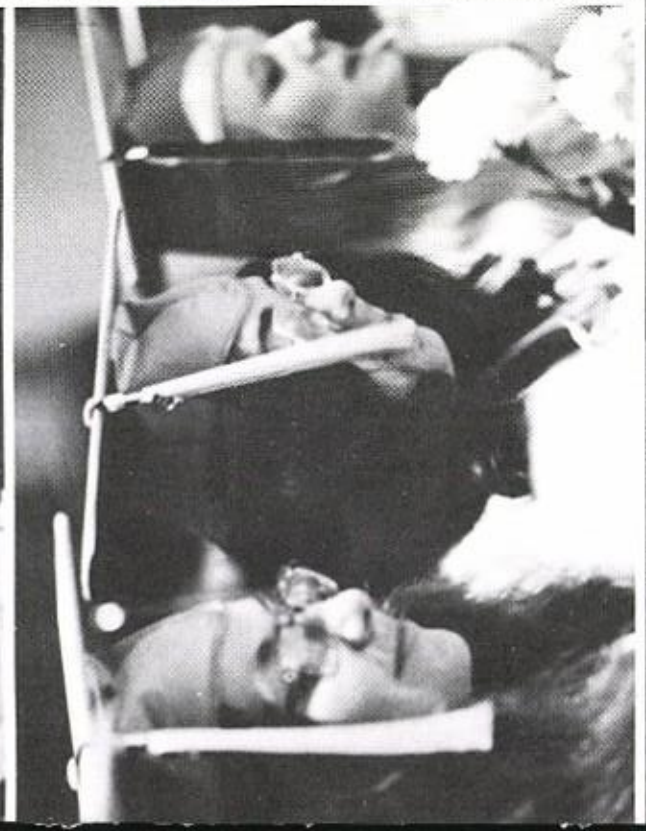


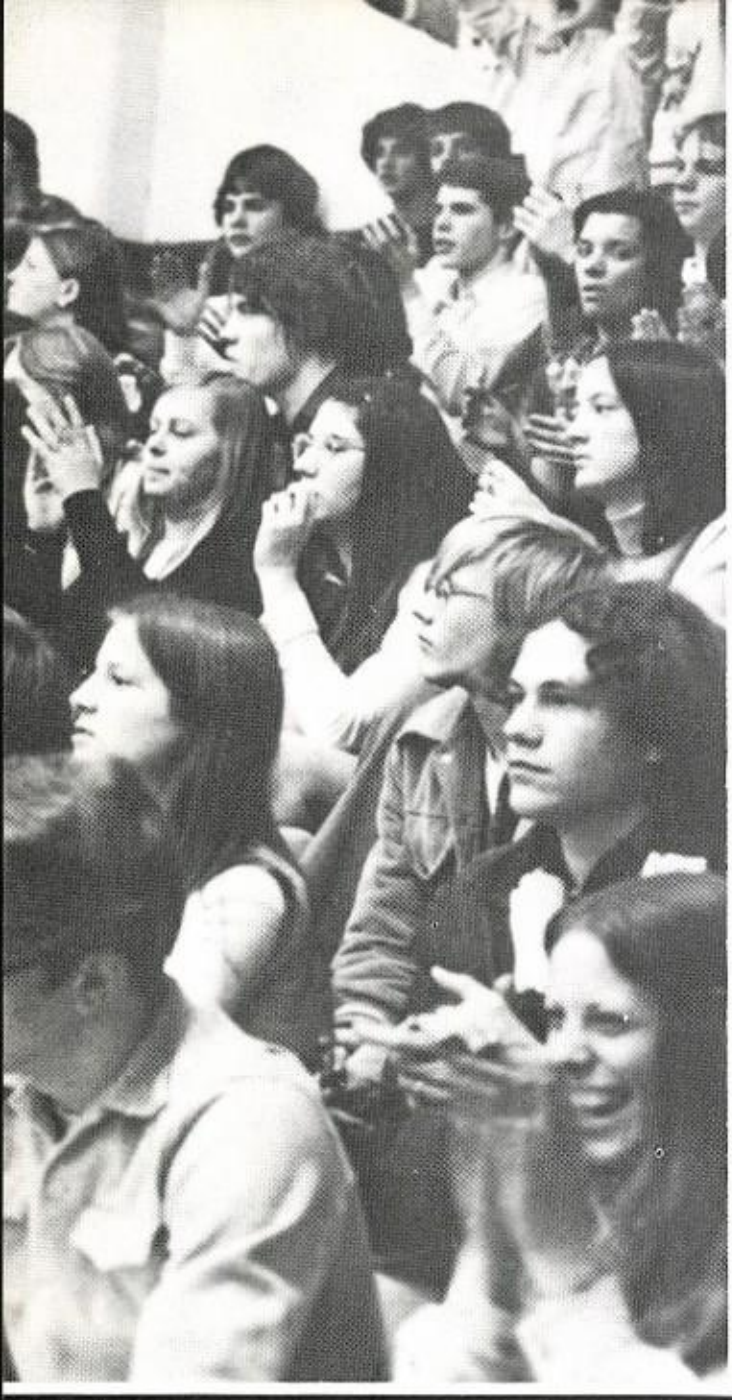
. . . I Took the One Less Traveled . . .

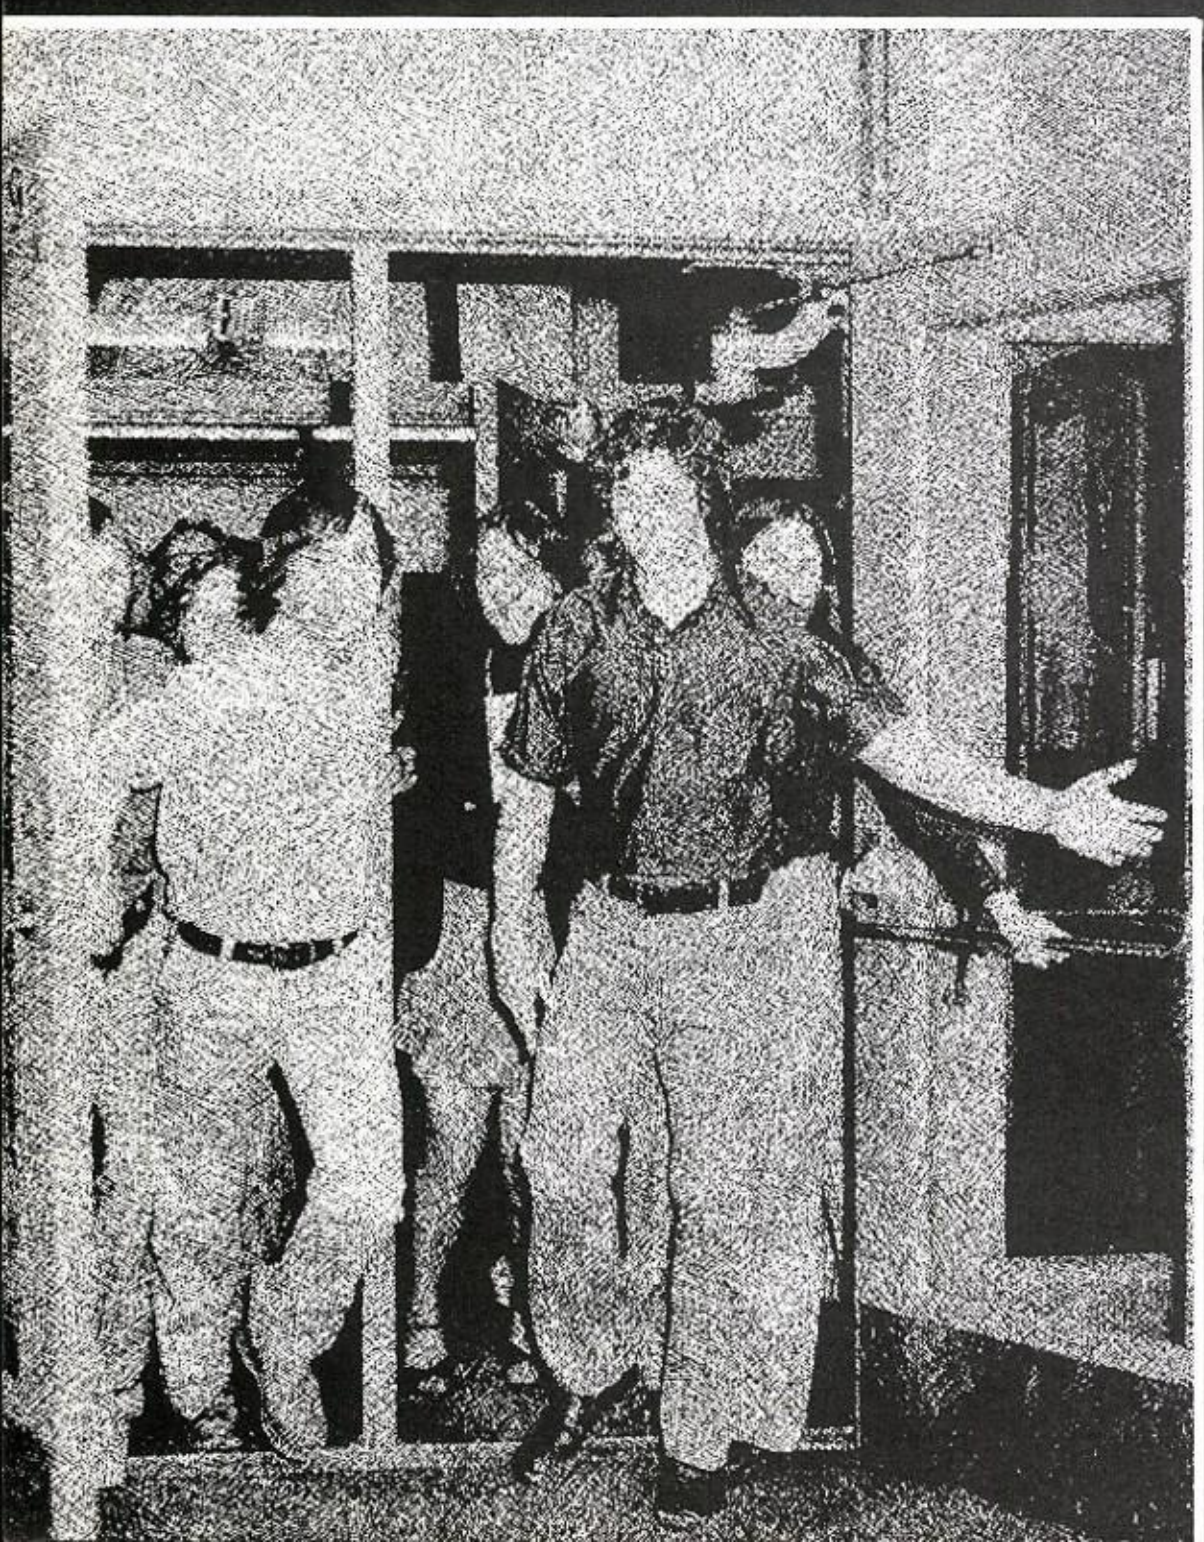












ALL THE DIFFERENCE

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, and sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
and having perhaps a better claim
Because it was grassy and wanted wear . . .

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Well Doos (Dor)
I don't know what to write
Everyone always write the same thing. I could be different & wish you a Happy New year. But I want.
I could write about last year but last year is past, this year is now, & the future will be here in a moment.
(It seems like I heard that on a commercial).
last year was fun & this year will be Better & it will get Better & Better we'll see alot of graduates come & go & will miss

Dory,
I'm really glad we had the opportunity to know you. Good luck with all the guys and everything else. Keep smiling ☺ Love Chrissy

Dory,
This little space is not enough room for me to say anything about anything. So, number 1 I did not say any thing. 2 I'm sorry. Love Tom Robinson

Dory,
I said be prepared, well prepared I am trying, I will so thinking, oh well. Love Jim PS Jim has a change in April.

Dear Dory,
I'ld kind of like to get to know you. Maybe latter on this year we can go out. I hope things are better for you this year. I'll probly see you around alot. Good luck chick.
Love
Mike "77"

Dory,
remember all those asignment in spanish we didn't get done. And having to stand up for ~~not~~ reciting in that class. To bad we can't go thought it again as if I really mean it.
Cindy

Dory,
I'm not going to go through a whole bunch of confusing poetry like ~~tomorrow~~ tomorrow and yesterday and today and love is forever and all that rot. Give it up, wait. I'll never forget the relationship we had and all the fun we had in Floot building and Christmas dance and all last year. I'll never forget you because ~~you~~ you're one of the most special people in the world.

P.S. this P.S. won't be a page long either!
P.S. Don't forget our date in April.

Dory,

You are a very neat person. I am glad I have you in some of my classes this year and I hope I'll have you in some of my future classes. Remember all the fun we had last year and hope the years to come will be just as fun.

P.S. I don't have anything else to say and I don't know why I put this here cause I can't think of anything to say, so I just better say, Bye!

Bye! Keith

Dory,

Wow you have fun this year. I hope you get going. I go getters beautiful. Beth "26" Get-going!

P.S. Remember all the fun we had last year. Don't forget Stringers, drunken Santas & wild angles. Don't be naughty. Have yourself a merry little Christmas. That's just enough for a while. Later time

Love

Dorothia (alias Dot)
Howdy! How are you? I am fine. This is an example of how exciting I am. HAVE FUN always. Stop getting into as much trouble as you always do. Good luck with guys, friends, and evil things. Be friendly to ~~[redacted]~~ animals!
(Bowwy, Kat, ...)

Well Dory - we finally made it! We're Seniors. OOPS!! How could I forget. You're only a little Sophomore. Just kidding. Any-way have fun these last 3 years cuz they will buzz past you so fast you'll wonder ~~remember~~ where they went. Now that I think about it, and I try not to, I'm sorta glad your my cuzin cuz I've gotten to know some of your friends and they're a lot of fun too. Stay the way you are and you'll have a lot more fun in the years to come. Be cool + take it easy and I'll try to find somplace on my calendar
